How to use this pack

This is a working document, not a book. You do not need to read it in order, and you do not need to finish it before you start. Open the section that matches the problem in front of you today.

> Two sections need your own information before this pack is fully useful: the your details worksheet on the next page, and the checklist at the back. Fill in the worksheet first — it takes about ten minutes, and everything else refers back to it.

What is in this pack

— The ten-block page structure

— Headline and offer formulas

— Proof without testimonials

— CTA and urgency copy that is honest

— A fill-in page brief for your designer or yourself

Who it is for

Anyone selling a single product, service, course or event who needs a page that produces replies — not a website that produces compliments.

What this pack will not do

It will not do the work for you, and it does not guarantee a result. It gives you the structure, the words and the routine. The rest is you, doing it consistently for a few weeks. That is not a small thing — most people do not.

THE PROBLEM

Why this exists

A landing page is not a small website. A website answers many questions; a landing page answers one, and then asks for the sale.

Most pages fail for the same two reasons: they offer more than one thing, and they never actually ask.

PART 01

The one-offer rule

If a visitor can do two different things on your page, they will do neither. Everything on the page either supports the offer or removes a reason not to buy.

— One offer. One price. One action.

— No menu, no sidebar, no ‘other services’. Those belong on the main site.

PART 02

The ten blocks

— 1 · Headline — the offer, stated plainly.

— 2 · Subhead — who it is for and the outcome.

— 3 · The visual — what they get, shown.

— 4 · What is included — a list, no adjectives.

— 5 · Proof — a result, a review, or a demonstration.

— 6 · Who it is not for — the fastest trust builder there is.

— 7 · Price — stated, with what it covers.

— 8 · Guarantee or terms — what happens if it is wrong.

— 9 · The question block — five real objections.

— 10 · One call to action — repeated three times, identical wording.

SECTION A

Offer headline formulas

Get [outcome] in [time] without [pain]	Get a working business website in 14 days without writing a word of copy.
[Product] for [specific person]	A five-page website for Lagos food businesses.
The offer, stated flatly	One page. Written, designed, live. ₦150,000.
The objection turned headline	You do not need a bigger website. You need one that explains itself.
The comparison	Same thinking as an agency. A tenth of the process.
The deadline version	Three build slots this month. Two are taken.
The proof-first version	We built this in five days. Here is what it cost.
The plain one	Buy the pack. Do it yourself. ₦5,000.

SECTION B

Included-list copy

Remove adjectives	Five pages, written and built. Contact form. WhatsApp button. Google Analytics. Training call.
Say the time	Delivered in 14 working days from the day we get your content.
Name the exclusions	Not included: logo design, photography, paid ads.
Say what they need to send	You send: your logo, five photos, three paragraphs about your business, and your WhatsApp number.

SECTION C

Proof without testimonials

Demonstration	Here is the same page before and after. The only change is the words.
Scope proof	This is the 41st build. Same structure every time.
Transparency	Here is the invoice, the timeline, and the messages, with names removed.
Third-party check	Run our site through Google PageSpeed yourself. Here is the link.
Honest limit	We have done five of these. Here are three. We are new and we are cheap because of it.

SECTION D

Call to action and urgency

Primary	Start the build — ₦150,000. Message us on WhatsApp.
Low friction	Send your site. We will send back three fixes, free.
Scarcity that is true	We take three builds a month so the dates are real. Two slots left for November.
Deadline that is true	This price holds until [date]. After that it is ₦[new price].
Reassurance	You see the first draft before the balance is due.
For the undecided	Not sure? Read the five questions at the bottom first.

YOUR DETAILS

The worksheet — fill this in first

Answer in the plainest words you have. Do not write what you think a business should sound like — write what you would say to a customer standing in front of you.

Business name and what you sell, in one line:

Who your best customer is (age, area, what they do):

The problem they come to you with, in their words:

What you do that a competitor does not:

Your price or price range:

Your delivery time or turnaround:

How a customer reaches you (number, handle, address):

The one thing you want this pack to fix first:

The single offer this page is for:

The single action you want a visitor to take:

DO THIS

The checklist

Work down the list in order. Tick as you go. If you only do the first three, you will still be ahead of most people who bought this.

Step 1	☐	Write down the single action you want. If you cannot say it in four words, the page is not ready.
Step 2	☐	Write the headline. Test it on someone who does not know you.
Step 3	☐	List what is included. Remove every adjective.
Step 4	☐	List who it is not for. Be specific and be honest.
Step 5	☐	Gather proof. If there is none, say plainly that you are new and price accordingly.
Step 6	☐	State the price and the terms.
Step 7	☐	Write the five objections in the customer’s own words, then answer each in two lines.
Step 8	☐	Remove the menu. Remove every second option. Repeat the one action three times.
Step 9	☐	Test on a phone with a stranger. Watch where their thumb goes.

QUESTIONS

Five things people ask

Should the page have a menu?
No. A menu gives people somewhere else to go. One page, one exit.

How long should it be?
As long as it takes to remove doubt and no longer. Usually 800–1,500 words for a ₦150,000 offer.

Can I run ads to it?
That is what it is built for. One offer, one action, no distractions.

What if I have several offers?
One page per offer. Do not merge them — that is how both stop selling.

Do I need a guarantee?
You need clear terms. 'If the first draft is in the wrong direction, you owe nothing further' is honest and it works.

SUPPORT

If something is unclear

Message us on WhatsApp and ask. If a file will not open, or a page is missing, we replace it within seven days, no questions. That is the whole support promise — there is no upsell waiting at the end of it.
