Most tutor pages post the finished work and nothing else. That is the whole problem.

The move: Reading momentum.

Each sentence should make the next one feel necessary.

What that looks like on a Nigerian page:

Hook: 'The enquiry came in.' Next: 'The reply was slow.' Next: 'The customer bought elsewhere.'

The part most people skip: do not steal the words. Steal the structure, then write your own example from your own customer.

Today I chose the slower option. Let me explain why.

AI can draft.
A person approves.
Realistic AI presenters and voices are disclosed.
Private customer data stays out of prompts.

What I have learned building it: the work is rarely the hard part. The hard part is making the message, the website, the content and the follow-up say the same thing.

When they disagree, the customer does not argue. They just go quiet.

So I am posting the process here, including the parts that are still unfinished.
No wahala — that is the point of building in public.

What is the one thing in your business that keeps disagreeing with itself?

Discounts always increase sales. We put it on trial.

Verdict: It depends.

A discount can attract price-sensitive buyers and reduce margin. It can also train customers to wait. Test whether the offer is clear before reducing price.

How we would test it:
Run one non-discount offer post and compare qualified enquiries

Keep the useful part. Drop the absolute.

That is the whole method: one claim, one verdict, one test small enough to run

A question I asked five business owners this week.

Is this a legal contract? No. The templates are general business documents, not legal contracts. Have terms reviewed professionally.

This is why The Proposal & Report Template Pack exists as a ■5,000 DIY pack: most owners do not need an agency this month. They need the scripts, the tracker and the routine, and they need it before Friday.

I am deliberate about the boundary. It is not custom work. It does not guarantee sales. It helps you convert more of the enquiries you already get.

Saying the limit out loud has cost me nothing and saved a lot of awkward conversations.

What is the question customers ask you that you dread answering?
