COPY AS THE POST:

Most cleaning service pages post the finished work and nothing else. That is the whole problem.

The move: Test, do not guess.

Compare one variable and record the result instead of declaring a universal rule.

What that looks like on a Nigerian page:

Test two hooks for the same offer and compare relevant enquiries, not only views.

The part most people skip: do not steal the words. Steal the structure, then write your own example from your own customer.

Source: Scientific Advertising. Attributed, not quoted at length.

The five pages are attached as a document. Page one is the cover LinkedIn shows on mobile.

I am building Easywurld in public, and today's decision was meet Easywurld:
Sample tour.

This is a concept sample.
Watch the structure, not invented results.
The before version is vague.
The after version gives a clearer starting point.

What I have learned building it: the work is rarely the hard part. The hard part is making the message, the website, the content and the follow-up say the same thing.

When they disagree, the customer does not argue. They just go quiet.

So I am posting the process here, including the parts that are still unfinished.
No wahala — that is the point of building in public.

What is the one thing in your business that keeps disagreeing with itself?

Verdict: It depends.

Permission and relevance matter. A useful update to people who asked is different

Ask before adding contacts and make opting out easy

Keep the useful part. Drop the absolute.

That is the whole method: one claim, one verdict, one test small enough to run

No thread. No funnel. Just the next step made obvious.

Somebody will disagree with this, and that is fine.

Do you do SEO for me? No. It is a DIY starter. Easywurld doing SEO work for you is a separate project.

This is why The Lagos Local Visibility Starter exists as a ■5,000 DIY pack: most owners do not need an agency this month. They need the scripts, the tracker and the routine, and they need it before Friday.

I am deliberate about the boundary. It is not custom work. It does not guarantee sales. It helps you convert more of the enquiries you already get.

Saying the limit out loud has cost me nothing and saved a lot of awkward conversations.

What is the question customers ask you that you dread answering?
